

10-21-1973 MNS P4-D

June 3-20-73
ASHLAND William H. Zehner, 64, of 1270 Claremont Ave., Ashland, died at Ashland Samaritan Hospital Monday afternoon.

Born in Richland County, Mr. Zehner was a real estate consulting engineer and was a member of the Christ United Methodist Church in Ashland. He was president of the Ashland Real Estate Board.

He is survived by his wife, Gertrude; two daughters, Mrs. Richard (Lovina) Welsh of Westfield Center, Ohio, and Mrs. Wilbur (Saundra) Lawrence of Columbus; a step-son, Orin Max of Port Girardeau, Mo.; seven grandchildren.

ZEHNER, William H.

d. 19 March 1973

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY — Mrs. Gertrude Etzwiler's family held a small celebration today in honor of her 101st birthday yesterday. She will be joined by her daughter, Mrs. Mary Cates of Rule Rd., with whom she lives; her son, Charles of Galion; grandsons and great-grandchildren. Born in Lexington, Mrs. Etzwiler has lived in this area all her life. Asked to explain her mother's long life, Mrs. Cates, 72, said: "She just kept working hard all her life." (Photo by Phil Rudelt)

AGED BELLVILLE WOMAN STRICKEN

Funeral of Mrs. Jane Shoemaker to Be Held Tomorrow.

BELLVILLE Funeral services for Mrs. Jane Shoemaker, 82, of Bellville, who died in Mansfield General hospital Tuesday morning of a heart attack, will be held at the Newville M. E. church at 2 p. m. Thursday with Rev. I. K. Umbarger of Mansfield and Rev. Wintermuth of Bellville officiating. Burial will be in St. John's cemetery.

Mrs. Shoemaker spent most of her life near Perrysville and Newville. She was a member of the Newville M. E. church.

Surviving are her husband, George; a brother, Orlando Vanzik of Newville; three grandchildren, Mrs. Chester Harper of Marrow, Mrs. Roy D. Whisler and Mrs. Lucille Garner of Mansfield, and five great grandchildren. The body will be at the Shaffer funeral home until Thursday noon.