GEE, WHISKERS! — Do you see the glint of admiration in the eye of that young kid as he looks at the whiskers on an older goat at Crystal Park Zoo in London, England?

Jacob Brubach Dies After Extended Illness

Jacob H. Brubach, 81, died this morning at the home of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Chester E. Brubach, 282 Sheridan Ave., following an extended illness. He made his home with his daughter-in-law.

Born Sept. 18, 1881 in Pittsburgh, Penn., he lived in Mansfield most of his life. He was a retired molder, and a city employe and was a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Surviving, in addition to Mrs. Brubach, are one granddaughter, Mary-Jo Brubach; one brother, C. Fred Brubach, 437 Edgewood Rd.; four sisters, Mrs. Clarence Fisher, 556 Beechwood Dr.; Mrs. George Wolfe, Mrs. Earl Lutz, and Mrs. George Mitchell, all of San Diego, Calif.

The body was removed to the Wappner Funeral Home where services will be held Friday at 1 p. m. conducted by the Rev. Harold L. Konz, pastor of the St. John's United Church of Christ. Burial will be in Mansfield Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home starting this evening.
