

OFFICIALS WANT SURPLUS MAIL SACKS COLLECTED

WASHINGTON SAYS NEARNESS
OF HOLIDAYS MEANS SACKS
OUGHT TO BE READY FOR MAILS.

The postoffice authorities at Washington had notified the postmasters
of the United States that all surplus mail sacks which are lying about and are not necessary to the regular mail at the postoffice should be sent to the mail bag depositories at once
so as to be in readiness for the coming holiday season.

One of the heaviest mails of the season will be caused by the sending out of catalogs near the holidays by various catalog and mail order houses. The postoffice officials believe in being prepared a time in advance. These surplus sacks, several hundred thousand in number are scattered over the country.

WIFE FILES DIVORCE SUIT

Seeks Divorce From C. S. Ashbrook on Grounds of Extreme Cruelty.

✓ Ella Forbing Ashbrook has filed her petition in the probate court asking a divorce from Charles S. Ashbrook, former druggist of this city. W. S. Kerr is the wife's attorney.

It is averred that the Ashbrooks were married on June 18, 1890, and that seven children were born to them, Esther, Naomi, Mary, Caroline, Charles, Jr., Ella Jane and Jack. The suing wife says she has at all times been a faithful and dutiful wife. Her husband, she claims, has been guilty of extreme cruelty and about May 10, 1915, deserted her and refused to support the wife or pay the rent of their home. She says that since this refusal she herself has supported the children, who live with her and have no means of support.

The defendant owns a great amount of property, Mrs. Ashbrook says, besides an interest in the residence at the corner of Bowman and Park avenue west, this city. She says he owns a drug store and other business in Findlay and has owing to him the sum of $6,000. He also is said to own $1,500 of the stock of the Security Savings & Trust Co.

She asks for permanent alimony, reasonable alimony pending the action and an injunction which will prevent Ashbrook from disposing of his property.

STATE CALLS WITNESSES

By Associated Press.

New York, Sept. 20.—The Athinal left New York last Thursday for Piraeus, Greece, carrying few passengers, a large general cargo and many bags of mail. According to her schedule the Tuscania, which is reported to have rescued many passengers would have been due in New York today, but owing to delay, apparently caused by the fire on board the Athinal, she was not expected to arrive before tomorrow.

The Athinal was of 4,400 tons and was owned by the National Steamship Navigation Co. She plied between American and Grecian ports.

REFERENDUM ANNOUNCED ON M'DERMOTT LAW

By Associated Press.

Columbus, Sept. 20.—Official announcement was made by the secretary of state today that there would be a referendum on the McDermott liquor license law at the November election. The number of valid signatures on the referendum is more than 85,000, about 15,000 more than enough to insure a referendum. About 5,000 invalid signatures were thrown out.
