

against him.

Of course if the Brown followers do not prove the affidavits exist and come to the front with the charge they will have received a blow from a political boomerang.

And if they think they have evidence and present it the mayor will meet them with proof which he declares will convince the voters an attempt has been made to destroy him.

Action is demanded by the mayor's friends, but the Brown party has not moved.

WANT

Property Sold and Proceeds Distributed

The Warren Paint Co., by its attorneys, Cummings, McBride & Wolfe, has filed a petition in common pleas court against Hugh C. Smith, Ellen M. Smith, R. B. Moore, John Shellhorn and The Gem City Acetylene Generator Co., to marshal liens.

The petition says on Sept. 21, plaintiff recovered a judgment against Hugh C. and Ellen M. Smith for $432.19 and for $4.50 costs that they have no goods or lands subject to execution, but that Ellen M. Smith is seized of an equity in land in Jefferson township.

The petition says that R. B. Moore, John Shellhorn and the Gem City Acetylene Generator Co. claim to hold mortgages on the property by reason of which it is claimed the plaintiff is unable to effect a sale of the premises.

The plaintiffs asks that claimants be compelled to set up their claims if they have any; that the court adjust the priorities thereof and of plaintiff's lien and that the real estate be ordered sold and the proceeds distributed among the claimants.

MOTION

to greet the man, names, with a certain expression. Only two selected Jackson as the mysterious person and the first mixed the "spiel," while the second, Miss Jeannette Bosler of High street was able to land the money by getting out the words in proper form.

PASTOR

Of St. Mark's Mission Is Installed

Rev. B. B. Uhl, organized St. Mark's Lutheran Mission on the north side of the city about one year ago, was formally installed as pastor Tuesday evening.

Rev. O. D. Baltzly, president of the Synod, had charge of the ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. S. P. Long of the First Lutheran and Rev. F. M. Keller, pastor of St. Matthews church.

The Lutherans of the north side packed the hall in which the services were held. The prospects for this new congregation are very flattering. The membership is growing and the mission is prosperous. A lot has been purchased and a new church will be begun early in the spring. This will make five Lutheran churches in Mansfield.

New York, Oct. 23.—Under the will of his father, Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt came into possession of one-half of the residuary estate of Cornelius Vanderbilt, estimated at $60,000,000. He will get the other $30,000,000 in 1912, when he is 35 years of age. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., Alfred's brother, displeased his father in marrying Miss Grace Wilson, and was practically disinherited. The will provided that A. G. Vanderbilt should inherit all the residuary estate, to be held for him in trust until he became 30 years old, when one-half of it should be paid him, and the other half when he became 35. He was 30 years old mystery.

Two or three D. Taylor, P. F. W. Taylor Switch in the certificates school, and, recommenda ployment. Taylor taught School; Pro New Austria Taylor the began on J money was ent John W. the three T promptly at tive salaries

Orders be intendent City and L whom the goods, and ings notified that no mo investigation reveal the lors.

Prof. G. E. deal of mo bought hear the promise money arrived what was d and give o Rawlings.

boarded with Hicks, two been acting odist preach

Mr. Hicks found Taylor pasture, pr necessary to praying all the house. fields. He part of his rowed free without rep

Recogni Madrid. (resolving to