SHELBY AD CLUB HEARS H. D. KUHN, J. J. CRUM

SHELBY, Jan. 24—H. Dale Kuhn and J. J. Crum gave interesting little talks when the Shelby Ad club held its regular meeting Monday evening at the Parish House where they were served an exceptional dinner by the women of the Episcopal church.

Mr. Kuhn made a report on the Boy Scout movement in Shelby and urged all the Ad club members to back it. J. J. Crum spoke on the approaching 50th anniversary of the Mutual Plate Glass Insurance Co. He asked the Ad club members to help in welcoming the agents of the concern who will come from all over the country to Shelby to celebrate the events.

President C. C. Bloomfield was in charge of the meeting at which 20 were present.

SHELBY, Jan. 28—Hal Lewis who has been ill with pneumonia is reported resting comfortably at his home on S. Gamble-st. He is considerably improved.
