

Tuesday, June 24, 1986 News Journal

Obituaries

Maxine F. Roose

ASHLAND — Maxine Faith Roose, 55, of Pavonia East Road died Sunday afternoon at Mansfield General Hospital after a long illness.

Born Oct. 18, 1930, in Mannerville, Pa., she was a resident of the Ashland area for the past 25 years. Mrs. Roose was a homemaker and a previous employee of Western Union.

She was a member of the Four Square Gospel Church, where she was treasurer.

Surviving are her husband, Marlen; three daughters, Dusty Roose of San Diego, Calif., Robyn McCormick of Ashland and Hope Ann Faith Roose, at home; four sons, Rocky of Mackinaw, Ill., Mickey of Mansfield, and Mace and Monte, both at home; three grandchildren; three sisters, Wanda Adams, Caroline Keuper and Ila Conkle, all of East Liverpool; and a brother, Larry Faith of Lisbon, Ohio.

Graveside services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. in Columbiana Memorial Park, East Liverpool. Calling hours will be Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Heyl Funeral Home in Ashland. Memorial contributions may be made to the church.

Wilbert Moore

MANSFIELD — Wilbert F. "Bill" Moore, 62, of 1898 Beal Road, owner and operator of the Advance Roofing and Siding Company, died unexpectedly of a heart attack Monday morning in Mansfield General Hospital.

Mr. Moore was born Dec. 30, 1923, in Dayton and was a resident of Mansfield for the past 41 years. He was associated with his own roofing and siding company for 39 years. During World War II he served in the U.S. Navy.

He was a member of Clearfork Valley Wesleyan Church, Mansfield Power Squadron, Moose Lodge, the Mansfield-Richland Area Chamber of Commerce, Better Business Bureau, Marine City Yacht Club, Put-In-Bay Yacht Club, and a former member of VFW.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. H. Laffern (Kelly) Moore; one son, Michael J. of Mansfield; his mother, Helen Moore of Dayton; three sisters, Velma Haldeman of Dayton, Alice Dice of Midland, Mich., and Nancy Camp of Columbus; five grandsons, Michael pose of.

CA 154420 3 Feb 1921

DEATH

RONK

Joel Ronk, a resident of Crawford county for almost three quarters of a century, died at his home three miles east of Crestline, Tuesday morning. Death was due to heart trouble, and although he had been ailing for a few months, he was bed-fast only since last Thursday. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from his late residence.

The deceased was a son of Jacob and Rebecca Ronk and was one of a family of ten children. He was born in Dauphin county, Pennsylvania, January 4, 1844, but came to Sandusky Tp. Crawford county, Ohio, with his parents, when he was a small child. He was married to Miss Lydia Jane Knisely of the same township and they spent all of their married life in this county until about five or six years ago, when they moved to the present residence east of Crestline, in Richland county, where he died at the age of 77 years and 27 days.

Mr. Ronk is survived by his wife, three children, May and Perry, at home, and Jay, of Crestline, two grandchildren, one brother, Thos. Ronk and one sister, Mrs. Catherine Warner, both of Hicksville, Ohio, and one half-sister, Mrs. Lydia Knisely, of Crestline.

unidentified paper 11/15/2000

Nellie L. Rowe

Nellie L. Rowe, 90, of 46 Walnut St., Shelby, died Wednesday, Nov. 8, 2000, at Crestwood Care Center after a long illness.

Born October 13, 1910 in Shelby to William and Julie Ann Lee Rowe, she was a lifelong Shelby resident. Ms. Rowe was a member of Plymouth Methodist Church and had been employed with the former Autocall Co. and Brickley Hotel.

Survivors include one sister, Florence Hamman of Crestline; two nephews, Charles A. Black of Crestline and Gary R. Black of Crestline; one step-niece, Donna Furr of Charlotte, N.C.; five grandnephews; one grand-niece; nine great-grand nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by three brothers, Merle, William H. and Charles Rowe; and one nephew, Dennis Black.

Private graveside services were held Friday at Greenlawn Cemetery in Plymouth. Pastor Linda Heinlen of Plymouth Methodist Church officiated. Barkdull Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.