

Columbiana county. situation seems to be con- ator Meek, of Dayton, who much like to have the Re- mination for state school. Judge John A. Shauck, the court, is likely to have for the nomination for. Judge Shauck is a county man and his nom- make it certain that no tion on this ticket can ounty. The other active r this nomination are J. ow chief clerk in the of- mmissioner E. A. Jones, ler, superintendent of the idlay. on is such that a new drafted for the nomina- enant governor. So far idate announced is W. S. rson county. There will ion to the nomination Harris for another term r's office.

into proxies, and as the proxy of lat- est date is effective, neither side knows exactly where it stands. Neith- er will give out figures. Mr. Harriman is in the city.

DEATH

Came while Woman Was in Her Garden

Mrs. Mary Ann Pfeiderer, wife of John Pfeiderer, died at her home north of Sulphur Springs, death result- ing from a stroke of apoplexy which came upon her early in the afternoon.

Mrs. Pfeiderer had gone into the garden near the house to dig some sweet potatoes. One of her daughters some time afterward noticed her kneeling motionless on her knees in the garden. She went to her mother's side only to find her unconscious. She was taken into the house but did not recover.

mill for the heati the tax will be 6 of valuation.

The motion to was made by Mr by Mr. Patterson. sioners voted in f of the resolution.

The members of ment committee Commerce, who a house improve graphs made t showing the cond system and the sev worth of material

With these the the taxpayers tha are necessary.

During the Feas mittee will be es every taxpayers o will be invited to county capitol.

EXCEP

Filed to Final minis

Exceptions have bate court by A. account of J. P. trator of N. S. He

It is claimed th his life time was b in the sum of $200 per cent from Ju promissory note si stated that the el to J. P. Henry on Jan 11, 1906, and as a valid claim but that the admin to pay the same

SEEKERS OF TITLES

