DANN—JENNER.

ONE OF THE BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENTS OF MANSFIELD

Was the Marriage of Edward W. Dann, of Columbus, and Miss Florence A.

Jenner, of This City, Today—
Many Guests Present.

The marriage of Florence Alberta Jenner, second daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. W. Jenner, and Edward William Dann, vice president of the J. W. Dann Manufacturing Company, of Columbus, was solemnized at 3 o'clock this afternoon in presence of 100 invited guests at the residence of the bride's parents, 301 Park Avenue West.

The wedding and reception formed one of the most brilliant social events ever held in this city. The house was tastefully decorated with pink and white roses, and the east library, where the ceremony was performed, was a perfect bower of sweet peas, roses and ferns, charmingly arranged.

Promptly at 3 o'clock Nagle's Harp Orchestra began playing the Lohengrin wedding march and the bridal party marched into the east library and took their respective stations. First came the ushers, Charles Harroun and Fred. Jameson; then Edward W. Dann, the bridegroom, and his cousin, Edward Dann, of Syracuse, N. Y., then the maid of honor, Miss Grace Jenner, and lastly the bride, accompanied by her father, Judge J. W. Jenner. The bride was attired in silk crepe trimmed in duchess lace, with pearl trimmings and the conventional bridal veil. During the ceremony the harp orchestra played "Oh, Promise Me," very softly. The ring ceremony was used and the bride was given away by her father. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Hubbell, D. D.

After the ceremony was over the orchestra played Mendelssohn's wedding march while the newly-wedded couple received congratulations. The bridal party and the immediate relatives then went up stairs, where a sumptuous wedding supper was served in two rooms. The bridal party ate in a room by themselves, which was beautifully decorated with smilax and bridal roses. At 4 o'clock a reception was held, which was attended by over 200 invited guests.

The following is a list of the guests from abroad: Mrs. J. W. Dann, the Misses Edith, Grace and Florence Dann, Walter Dann, Lewis Dann, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Dann, Charles Nesbitt, Mrs. Dolph Day, H. A. Bandy, Miss Katrina Myers, Miss Tracey, John J. Archer, Bruce Chandler, Howard Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. A REAL ROMANCE.

A Prodigal Pair Returns to the City After Six Years' Absence.

There was a little airing of family difficulties in Police Court this morning. Nicholas Hein and wife, Mary, lived peaceably together for a number of years and raised five children. Six years ago Nicholas eloped with the 16-years-old servant girl, Lizzie Butcher, whose home was at Mt. Vernon. The pair went to Sparta, Ill., where they lived together and two children were born to them. On last Friday they returned to this city and stopped with John Hein, on North Diamond street. The first Mrs. Hein claims that her husband was never divorced from her and that he and Lizzie Butcher are not legally married.

It is also claimed that during the husband's six years' absence Mrs. Hein No. 1 illegally lived with James Huffman, who formerly was in the saloon business on North Main street. Since Hein's return to this city he and his brother John have had some trouble with his son by his first wife. The boy called his father and uncle vile names and he was brought into Police Court this morning to answer to the charge. Mayor Black dismissed the case and now Mary Hein wants her former husband, Nicholas, arrested for threatening to shoot her, etc.

Among the numerous presents designed for Mrs. Bisbee (nee Miss E. Ella Niman) on the occasion of her marriage last Wednesday, was one that failed to arrive. Mr. Thomas Crook, a relative living at Bolton, England, sent her a two-crown gold piece enclosed in a letter. When the package reached Liverpool it was taken possession of by the British postal authorities, opened by them and both the letter and coin returned to Mr. Crook, with a notice that it was unlawful to transmit coins in that manner. Yesterday Mr. John B. Niman, the bride's father, received the letter, accompanied by the proper explanation of the absence of the wedding present.

PROCTOR-MAXWELL.

Marriage of Two of Mansfield's Most Popular Young People.

Last evening the elegant residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Maxwell, on South Main street, was the scene of one of the principal social events of the season, it being the occasion of the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Janet Maxwell, to Efflo Bowers Proctor. The bride and groom are two of Mansfield's most popular young people. The groom is the eldest son of F. M. Proctor and wife. He has, for a number of years, been traveling for a large wholesale establishment.

About 200 guests were present to celebrate the marriage. At 8 o'clock Miss Jessie Young officiated at the piano and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march. As the beautiful strain broke forth the bridal procession started through the hallway led by Rev. F. B. Foster, of the United Presbyterian church, followed by Robert B. Maxwell, Jr., and Frank E. Proctor, brothers of the contracting parties, who acted as groomsmen. The bride, beautifully attired in a white satin gown, trimmed with lace and wearing a long white bridal veil, and leaning on the arm of the groom, brought up the rear. The ceremony was performed in the parlor under a chandelier which was artistically decorated with flowers.

After the ceremony the bridal party and guests were invited out to the dining room, where elegant refreshments were served. Harrington's mandolin and guitar orchestra rendered delightful music during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Proctor were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, the value of which would exceed $1,000. They left at 10:30 last evening for Cleveland, where they will spend their honeymoon. After April 12th they will be at home to their friends at No. 212 Park Avenue West.

Among the guests present from abroad were Milo Peak and wife, of Newark; Robert Young, Miss Lizzie Young and Mrs. Algeo, of Bellville; Miss Jessie Babst, of Crestline; Miss Elizabeth McCleery, of Columbus; Noble Welty, of Pittsburg, and M. N. Searison, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Edward Schambs and Miss Beer Were Married on April 8th.

It seems that Ed. Schambs, of this city, whose marriage to a Bucyrus young lady was mentioned in this paper last evening, stole a march on even his most intimate friends and some of his relatives, and was married over two weeks ago, instead of last Monday evening. Yesterday's Bucyrus Telegraph contains the following on the subject:

As a happy feature of the Round Table entertainment at the home of Col. Fisher last evening came the introduction of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schambs to the assembled guests. It was a complete surprise to all, and when announced that the two had been married on April 8th, at Monroe, Michigan, by Rev. Frank, of that city, it was some time before the guests were contented to believe the story. The bride, Miss Margaret Beer, had asked her mother, Mrs. Fisher, if she might not be so married, partly to avoid the preparation for a large wedding and partly as a surprise to her many friends. Mrs. Fisher, having consulted Col. Fisher, consented to the plan and they all entered into the idea to keep it a secret, and keep it they surely did, for when the announcement was made last evening it was a surprise to all present. The two were married at Monroe, Michigan, on April 8th, and next morning arrived in Bucyrus. Mr. Schambs left the same day for Mansfield, and did not visit Bucyrus more often than he had been accustomed to come in the past, and only Col. and Mrs. Fisher were aware of the change of relations.

Miss Beer is a favorite young lady. Her life spent in our city has been a pleasure to all who knew her. Her graces of manner, her charming character and her ready wit and brightness have won for her many friends. Mr. Schambs is a young man in business at Mansfield. He has many friends here, while at home his friends number all his acquaintances. The best wishes of their host of friends will be showered upon them and the hope that all happiness may be theirs will be the wish of all.

The mother of the groom and his sisters, Misses Bertha and Beula, were over last night for the announcement party. Mr. and Mrs. Schambs left for a trip to Toledo, Columbus and Chillicothe, and will then go to Mansfield, where for the present they will make their home with the parents of the groom.

The bridal couple took their place in front of the altar, when the beautiful Episcopal marriage ceremony was read. The boy choir of the church rendered a number of selections.

Today, at the residence of the bride's parents, 277 Newman street, the marriage of Lottie Bell Platt and Wm. H. Gugler was solemnized at high noon. The wedding took place in the presence of about seventy-five of the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

At 12 o'clock the bride and groom, accompanied by the flower girls, Miss Rose Taylor, of this city, and Miss Ruth Wade, of Toledo, marched down the stairs to the soul-stirring strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. W. T. Fulton. The wedding party proceeded to a bank of green ferns in the back parlor and the Rev. Duston Kemble read the beautiful and impressive ring service.

The bride was attired in a becoming toilette of cream silk and looked very pretty. The groom wore the conventional black. Mr. Gugler is employed at the Boston Store and is one of the most popular and excellent young men of this city, and Miss Platt is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Platt. About twenty guests were present from Toledo, Galion, Bucyrus and Crestline.

BUSHNELL-LEWIS.

MARRIAGE OF TWO PROMINENT YOUNG PEOPLE LAST NIGHT.

The Ceremony Performed by Rev. D. J. Meese, D. D., in the First Presbyterian Church--The Newly-Married Couple Depart for the East.

Last night the First Presbyterian church was comfortably filled with the society people of this city to witness the marriage of Miss Katherine LeClere Lewis, of this city, and Dr. William Bushnell, of New York City, son of M. B. Bushnell and wife, of this city. The wedding was one of the most beautiful and impressive ever witnessed in this city. The almost perfect evening, the gaily-dressed people and the beautiful, brilliantly-lighted church formed a scene which will long live in the memory of those present.

At five minutes after 7 o'clock Mrs. H. P. Sewell commenced the Lohengrin wedding march and, as the sweet strains were floating throughout the church, the contracting parties and attendants marched to the altar. First came the ushers, C. H. Keating, Wm. Rebuck, E. J. Gilbert and W. M. Weldon, marching in pairs from the front. As they reached the altar Dr. Wm. Bushnell, the bridegroom, and R. Brinkerhoff, Jr., the groomsman, marched out from the study door and awaited the arrival of the bride. After the ushers came Miss Elverda Bushnell, the bridesmaid, accompanied by her brother, Fred. Bushnell. Miss Bushnell was dressed in white crepe and carried a bunch of red roses. Next came the bride with her father, Mr. Pinkney Lewis, and accompanied by the maid of honor, Miss Gertrude Simpson. The bride was attired in a white satin dress and long-flowing bridal veil and carried a bunch of bride's roses. Miss Simpson was dressed in white silk and carried pink roses.

As the bride neared the altar the groom advanced to meet her. She took his arm and they advanced to the center of the altar, where the Rev. Dr. Meese was awaiting them. The ceremony used was a combination of several ceremonies and was very solemn and impressive. Both parties answered the Doctor's questions very distinctly and after the groom had placed the ring, Dr. Meese pronounced a brief prayer and Dr. Wm. Bushnell and Katherine LeClere Lewis were husband and wife.

The newly-married couple, followed by their attendants and near relatives, marched out to the tuneful and stirring strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march and, entering their carriages, were immediately driven to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Pinkney Lewis, at 521 Park Avenue West. There a reception and elaborate wedding supper was served to the immediate relatives of the newly-wedded couple and their intimate friends, in all about 50 people.

The wedding presents were numerous and costly.

At 2 o'clock this morning Mr. and Mrs. Bushnell left for Washington, D. C. After visiting there some time they will go to New York City, where they will begin house-keeping at once.

NELL'S LATEST.

HE MARRIES DR. A. T. BASHFORD'S
SISTER

After Beating the Doctor Out of a Board
Bill — A Tinge of Romance In the Affair—Bigamy Alleged.

Frank J. Nell, the professional dead beat, is in serious trouble, if all reports are true. He was arrested last Tuesday for beating A. T. Bashford out of a board bill, but as he promised to settle and appear in court the next morning he was released. He did not come to court and was fined $8.60 by Mayor Black, and orders were given the police to arrest him on sight. Officer Goodman saw him on North Main street this morning and started for him, but Nell ran up Carpenter's stairway and down the back stairs and escaped.

Mr. Bashford's sister and mother have been living with him at his boarding house on Third street. Mr. Bashford says that only a month ago he procured a divorce in the Crawford county courts for his sister from her worthless husband, J. L. Paxton. His sister, May, and Nell began a flirtation as soon as she arrived here, and last week the sister was ordered to leave the house or have nothing to do with Nell. She left and so did Nell, without paying his board.

This morning Mr. Bashford learned that Nell and his sister were married last Saturday night and he is positive that Nell is not divorced from his wife, who left him some time ago because he defrauded her father out of forty acres of land.

Nell seems to have also made himself solid with Mr. Bashford's mother, as she has been taking Nell's part. She left the boarding house today and took all her belongings with her. Mr. Bashford says that he will prosecute Nell for bigamy and will probably make out a warrant today.

It is reported that Nell is trying to dispose of his property so that he can skip the town.

The residence of John B. Niman and wife, at No. 245 West Fourth street was filled with guests last evening, who were bidden to the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss E. Ella, to Walter M. Bisbee, of Chicago.

It was a holly wedding, the house being beautifully decorated with holly, pine and smilax. Promptly at 6 o'clock Miss Anna M. Smith, at the piano, commenced the wedding march and the young couple who were to launch into life's great stream took their stand in the rear parlor under a white satin canopy covered with smilax, and Rev. J. W. Hubbell, D. D., performed the ring ceremony which made them husband and wife.

MARTIN-MILLER

Mansfield's Popular Deputy Postmaster
Weds an Ashland Lady.

Silver bells—wedding bells.

The sweet sounds thereof come across the hills and valleys of the Mohican to the SHIELD, and we stop the press and incline our ears, and midst the music of the bells we hear the solemn services which join as husband and wife till death doth them part, William B. Martin and Ella B. Miller.

The Rev. P. B. Stroup, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Ashland, is performing the pleasing ceremony at this hour, 5 o'clock, p. m., today, Dec. 5th, 1894, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Miller, 15 Sandusky street, Ashland, Ohio, in the presence of immediate relatives and intimate friends. A wedding journey will follow, southward, where the orange blooms and the warblers sing their sweetest notes.

Ah, Will, we now understand the frequent journeyings on the "off" Sundays over the Erie. We formerly thought Uncle Sam's mails were running riot on the Erie, but now we know that Cupid was holding his hand on the throttle.

Well, Will, we congratulate you and the wee winsome bride, and we congratulate ourselves and all Mansfield that nothing is lost, but much gained, and another splendid woman is permanently added to the society of our city. Our hearts and our hands to you, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Martin. Long life and much joy be ever yours.

AN ELOPEMENT.

CLINTON JOLLEY AND DAISY SACK-
MAN GO TO KENTUCKY

For the Purpose of Becoming Husband and Wife—A Complete Surprise to the Parents of the Young People.

Clinton A. Jolley and Miss Daisy Sackman left last night for Kentucky, saying to friends that they intended to get married this morning.

This is a complete surprise to the parents of both the young people, as they were not aware that the couple intended to get married.

This afternoon a SHIELD reporter called at the home of Miss Sackman's parents, Frank Sackman and wife, who live just east of the fair grounds. They were surprised to learn of their daughter's elopement, but said that no doubt it is true, as Daisy left home last evening and told her mother that she would stay all night with a friend and would not be home until this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Sackman have no objections to their daughter's marriage with Jolley, except that she is too young, being only 17 years of age.

Clint. Jolley is 24 years of age and is the son of J. T. Jolley, the well-known implement dealer, and is employed by his father. Yesterday afternoon he told his father that he would take a vacation for two days, but did not say anything about getting married. He has been paying attention to Miss Sackman for the past year, and other than the girl's age there are no objections to the wedding, but the parents of the young couple would have preferred to have had them marry in this city.

The young couple will no doubt return in a few days to receive the blessings of their parents.

ACKERMAN-CLINE.

Two Popular Young People Wedded Last Evening.

One of the society events of the season was the marriage last evening of Albert C. Ackerman and Miss Helen R. Cline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cline. The bride is a most lovely girl and talented and popular in social circles, and the groom is one of the popular and rising young men of the city and is employed as bookkeeper at the Citizens' National Bank. The wedding, which was very simple and pretty, took place at the residence of the bride's parents, on the West Fourth street road, about two and a half miles west of the city. All the cabs in the city and a large number of private carriages conveyed the guests to the hospitable and charming Cline home and by 6 o'clock over 200 invited guests were present. Mr. and Joseph Cline, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Clough, of Washington, D. C., received and welcomed the guests.

All the appointments were in perfect taste and the house was simply but tastefully decorated. Promptly at 6 o'clock the Mendelssohn wedding march was played on the piano by the bride's cousin, Miss Jennie Cline, and the bridal party, consisting of the Rev. Dr. J. W. Hubbell and Rev. Dr. D. J. Meese and the bride and groom, preceded by the ring-bearer, little Ethel McFarland, the bride's niece, marched down the front stairs and took their places in the east parlor in front of a bank of plants and ferns. The immediate relatives of the contracting parties occupied places of honor near the bridal party. The Episcopal ring ceremony was used and was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. W. Hubbell, assisted by the Rev. Dr. D. J. Meese. The beautiful bride was charmingly attired in a gown of blue brocade silk, draped with dotted Spanish lace, and carried a bunch of bride's roses. Immediately after the happy couple were pronounced man and wife an informal reception was held. The young couple received the most cordial congratulations and a wealth of beautiful, appropriate and costly presents, which were on exhibition in the east chamber.

A most delicious supper was served to all the guests and the Misses Florence Au, Edith Hurst, Linnie Ritz and Katherine Holway, intimate friends of the bride, waited on the table. The evening passed happily, but too quickly, and at a late hour the guests departed.

Among the guests from abroad were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Ackerman, of Canal Fulton; Miss Clara Conrad, of Akron; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Clough, of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Taylor, of Crestline.

AN ELOPING COUPLE.

The Wife of a Mansfielder Skips With Another Man.

A Washington, D. C., dispatch under date of May 28th contains the following, which will be of local interest:

The friends of Mrs. Ozier, teacher of physical culture and elocution, whose disappearance with Benjamin Holt, president of the United Reserve Fund Association, has created something of a sensation, are strongly of the opinion that she was suffering from temporary insanity.

Mrs. Ozier has been expecting for the past six years to obtain a divorce. Three different times action has been brought, but the proceedings suspended. Her husband's family formerly lived at Mansfield, Ohio, but now reside at Crestline. They are wealthy and highly respected. Nelson Ozier, an uncle, was postmaster at Mansfield for one term, and is a warm personal friend of Senator Sherman. The husband was a dealer in wool and dairy products. He was last heard of in the mining regions out west.

A letter received yesterday from Mrs. Ozier's mother in Toledo, dated May 24, says that the daughter has not been in that city, and it is not known there where she is located. Her mother is very ill from nervous prostration as a result of the shock. A letter has also just been received from Mrs. Holt, in which she expresses a desire and determination to find her husband and the willingness to forgive him, being fully confident that when the infatuation has worn off he will return to her and his family. She says they lived 32 years together in peace and happiness and have five children.

Holt and Mrs. Ozier left this city on the evening of April 18th, taking the 8:15 train on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, presumably bound for Chicago. Some mail has been forwarded to Holt since he left, but he later entirely disappeared and his whereabouts are unknown. Every effort is being made by all parties interested to discover the couple—on the one side to reclaim Holt for his wife and family and on the other to return Mrs. Ozier to her friends, who are willing to forgive and take care of her.

The husband of the missing woman is Gaylord Ozier, of this city, clerk in F. S. Ozier's ticket stand. Mr. Ozier had been in the west for some time, but several years ago returned to this city, where he has since made his home. He has not lived with Mrs. Ozier for over three years.
