THE act of the Pennsylvania assembly which prohibits railroads from working operators more than eight hours out of 24, which goes into effect next March, will make it neces- sary for the Pennsylvania railroad to employ additional operators, and it is to supply this demand that the new school has been opened. It is estimat- ed that the railroad will need 700 more operators on the lines east of Pittsburg.

H. L. REIDER DEAD

Word has been received in this city of the death of Horace Leander Reiter, which occurred at his home at Butler, Ind., on Wednesday. Death resulted from a disease of the heart.

Mr. Reiter was born July 7, 1865, at Mansfield. When he was but a year old his parents removed to Bucyrus, and for many years he resided in that city. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reiter. He grew to manhood at Bucyrus and with but a short inter- val remained a resident until the fall of 1904, when he bought a bakery at Butler, Ind.

Across Sea by Wireless.

Glace Bay, N. S., Oct. 18.—The Mar- conl wireless station here flashed to the station at Clifden, on the coast of Ireland, a message from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, congrat- ulating the English people upon the inauguration of trans-Atlantic com- munication. The message was ad- dressed to the London Standard, and was relayed from the Irish coast to the British metropolis on the inland telegraph lines. After the transmis- sion of the first eastward message England's dispatch to Canada was re- ceived and the station was declared formally open for commercial trade.
