The new market house, to take the place of the one recently destroyed by fire, was opened Saturday in the Miller building on South Walnut street. Large crowds of shoppers crowded into the new market all day and the indications are that it will prove as popular as the old one.

Saturday night at 8:35 o'clock some bedclothing in the home of James Dickson, 188 West Third street, caught fire from an electric iron, causing a small blaze. An alarm was sent in from box No. 21 and the firemen and apparatus from central station house responded to the call. The blaze was easily extinguished.

There was no meeting of the Richland county election board Saturday afternoon at the courthouse as had been planned. The cause was the inability of a number of the members to be present. It was stated today that no further date has been set as it is difficult to discover a date that will be suitable for all.

Postmaster Bushnell has been informed by the postoffice department at Washington that the local office was allowed both the extra clerk and another carrier because of the courtesy of Congressman William Ashbrook. The new carrier will be chosen from four substitute carriers and one substitute clerk.

SHELBY BOY TAKES PART IN SNIPE HUNT

The following is taken from the half-minute interview column of the Shelby Daily Globe:

Hert Cine: You know I never was out snipe hunting until the other night when Herald Rhoades, Ray Light, Guy Coltman, Chicken Bricker, Roy Boggs and Eggs Hageman told me what great sport it was. When I came down street they were talking about snipe hunting and said that hides were worth from $1.50 to $5 each. They thought we ought to be able to get five or ten snipe in one night and we decided to go to Kuhn's woods as the evening, they informed me, was a very favorable one for the capture of these animals. Harold Rhoades carried the shot gun and Light was given the sack. Getting out to the woods they located me at one end of the forest where I held the sack for two hours and waited for the snipes to come. At the end of that time I whistled for the other boys and not being able to get an answer I came back to town. That was my first snipe hunt and I think will be my last.

FAMOUS VISITORS, LECTORS, ETC.

Hank Gowdy, better known as "Red," who practically won the world series for the Boston Braves when they were pitted against the Philadelphia Athletics in the year 1914 by his hitting, was in Mansfield yesterday shaking hands with old friends. Gowdy will be remembered by the fans as having played first base for the Lancaster club in the Ohio State league and has been seen in action in this city when Mansfield was a member of this league.

Gowdy stated that the reason for the Braves not capturing the pennant last season was due to the fact several of their star pitchers had sore arms while other members were on the injured list. When asked about the Federal league joining the organized baseball forces, he stated that it would work a hardship on many of the players. He is not worrying about the Federal league as his contract has two more years to run. When the baseball war started two years ago, Gowdy signed a contract for four years. He was wanted at the time by several Fed owners but decided to remain in organized ball.

The Richland county election board said today that they had received no word from the attorney general in regard to what course was to be taken toward delinquent candidates. There were a large number of candidates of the last election in this county that failed to record with the board what their expenditures were. Prosecuting Attorney Jarvis was absent from the city today and it could not be learned whether a similar notification had been received by him or not. It was stated today that a list of the names of delinquent candidates was taken by him a few days ago.

IMPROVEMENTS IN VOGUE AT RICHLAND COURTHOUSE

ELECTION BOARD GETS NEW SAFE DEPOSIT SPACE—PREPARE FOR TAX COMMISSIONER.

Richland County Courthouse

The peace and stillness of the courthouse were disturbed today by the merry clatter of the carpenters' instruments and the sounds of the moving of office fixtures.

In the basement a new apartment for storing the books and documents of the board of election was being installed in the little annex room to the east of their spacious office. This new compartment will be utilized for the storing of the ballots until such time as is prescribed for the destroying of them. The space provided for this purpose will be about 12 feet high, 4 feet wide and 12 feet deep. Numerous shelves and pigeon holes will be constructed. The section is to be guarded by a heavy oaken door, which will be finished off like the rest of the room. John Sunkel and a helper were in charge and expected to do all the carpentering work today.

In the office of the county auditor, a number of men were at labor. Their work today consisted in moving the main counter and desk about seven feet to the north in the direction of the main entrance. The bookcase, which stands between the counter and the door against the east wall, will be removed. The object of the repairs is to make room for the office of the county tax commissioners, which will in the future occupy a part of the office now entirely occupied by Auditor Case and his force. The office, now being used by the tax commissioner in the rear of the first floor of the courthouse will be utilized by the county commissioners as a private
